YOUR SUMMER, YOUR WORDS

Work in pairs. Read each line, discuss with your partner, and agree on one word. Write it in the second column.

1. A time of day
2. Something people carry in hot weather
3. A colour you see a lot in summer
3. A drink
5. Something you smell outside
6. Something you see a lot of in summer — people, things, anything
7. Something people do when they sit outside — write the -ing form
8. A feeling at the end of a long hot day

THE CITY IN SUMMER

Take your words from Slide 1 and put them in the gaps. Read your story together. Does it sound like a perfect summer vibe? Add 3 sentences to make it even more summery!

It is (1) _____ and the city is already warm. People are carrying (2) _____. Everything is (3) _____. At every café, someone is drinking (4) _____. You walk past and smell (5) _____. The street is full of (6) _____. People are sitting outside and (7) _____. At the end of the day, everyone feels (8) _____.

Now, share your story with the whole class and discuss together:

What do you see outside in summer?

What are people doing in your city right now?

THE CITY IN SUMMER

Sara: Hey, are you on your lunch break? Where are you right now?

Kai: Yes, I'm sitting outside near the fountain. It's so nice today, finally 🌞 Are you outside too?

Sara: Yes, I'm eating out with some people from work. This little place near the park. It's boiling, but I love it. Everyone is outside today, the whole city feels different.

Kai: I know. Usually, I just eat at my desk, but today — no way. Are you wearing sun cream? The sun is really strong today.

Sara: Oh, good point, I always forget. I'm sitting in the shade, so I think I'm okay. But it's so sticky today, right? Like, beautiful but sticky 😅

Kai: So sticky. I am drinking my second iced latte and just enjoying the sun. Everything just slows down in this heat, you know? I don't want to go back inside.

Sara: Same. I always avoid the sun in summer, but today I just want to stay outside forever. Are you free this evening?

Kai: Yes! Let's eat out again. I want to watch the sunset somewhere. We can sit in the air con first if it's still boiling and then go outside later 🌅

Sara: Perfect. I'm always so exhausted after the first hot day but also kind of refreshed, like happy-tired. You know?

Kai: Exactly. Let's stay out late tonight, first real summer evening. See you at seven 🌞

Read the conversation and answer the questions:

- Where are Sara and Kai right now?

- What are they planning for this evening?

GOOD IDEA OR BAD IDEA?

Read the situations. Is it a good idea or a bad idea? Work in pairs. Give advice using the two words in brackets.

Example: Your friend has just come back from a long walk in the sun and says she feels terrible. (exhausted / air con)

Possible answer: Bad idea! She's exhausted after walking in the sun. Tell her to sit in the air con and drink something cold.

1. Your friend wants to go for a run in the city at 2pm in August. (boiling / shade)

2. Your sister has just finished a long hot day at work and wants to go straight to the gym. (sticky / refreshed)

3. Your friend is going to the beach tomorrow and says he never burns. (sun cream / avoid the sun)

4. Your colleague wants to eat a sandwich at his desk tonight and go home early. (eat out / stay out late)

5. Your friend is answering emails on a hot Sunday afternoon and says he feels terrible. (slow down / exhausted)

6. Your brother can't decide between going outside to watch the sunset or staying in. (watch the sunset / sit in the air con)

EXTRA TASK

Read the three posts. Choose the best hashtag for each post. Then choose the correct word in bold to complete each sentence.

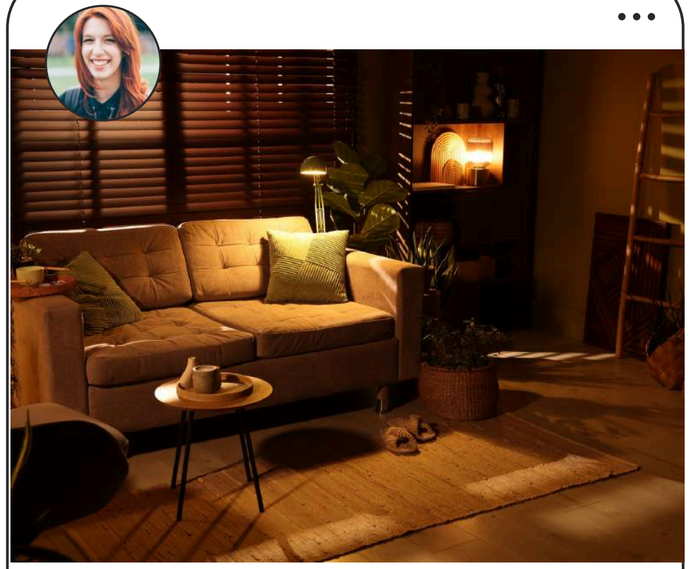

#cooldown	#sunnydays	#eveningwalk

It's so boiling / exhausted (1) today, I can't believe it's only June! I'm sitting in the air con / shade (2) outside this little café — perfect spot. The sun is so strong today, I actually remembered to slow down / wear sun cream (3) this morning for the first time this year 😂 It feels so sticky / refreshed (4) — hot and humid, but honestly I love it☀️

Sunday mood 🌅 Everything just starts to stay out late / slow down (5) in summer, and I am here for it. We want to eat out / avoid the sun (6) tonight — this little place near the river, so good. I always try to avoid the sun / watch the sunset (7) in the afternoon and just come out in the evening. And now we're watching the sunset / wearing sun cream (8) from the bridge. Amazing.

Hot day survival: step one — sit in the air con / eat out (9) until 6pm. Step two — go outside in the evening and slow down / stay out late (10) — nobody wants to go home tonight! I am completely sticky / exhausted (11) right now but also so refreshed / boiling (12) after that cold shower. Best day🌙
