A2 Modal Verbs Homework

Can, could, must, have to, should, may, might, will, shall and similar expressions

1 Choose the best option

Circle the correct answer. Then write the complete sentence.

1. You _____ show your ticket before you get on the train. (must / might)

2. My grandmother _____ swim when she was seven. (could / should)

3. It is sunny now, but it _____ rain later. (must / might)

4. You look tired. You _____ go to bed early tonight. (should / can)

5. We _____ bring food. The hotel has breakfast and dinner. (don't have to / mustn't)

6. _____ you help me with this box, please? (Could / Shall)

7. Students _____ use their phones during this exam. (mustn't / don't have to)

8. I think I _____ call Ana now. She is waiting for me. (will / could)

2 Complete the sentences

Use one expression from the box. You can use each expression once.

can	have to	should	might	would like to	be able to

1. I _____ speak a little Italian, but not very well.

2. You _____ take an umbrella. The weather forecast says there may be rain.

3. My parents _____ work tomorrow, so they cannot visit us.

4. I _____ book a table for four people, please.

5. After my operation, I won't _____ play football for two weeks.

6. The café _____ be closed on Monday. Check online before you go.

3 Write the question or negative form

Change each sentence. Keep the meaning as close as possible.

1. You can park here. Make it a question. Answer: _____

2. She has to leave at six. Make it a negative sentence. Answer: _____

3. They should buy tickets online. Make it a question. Answer: _____

4. You must use this door. Make it a negative sentence. Answer: _____

5. I will help you later. Make it a question. Answer: _____

4 Correct the mistakes

Some sentences are correct. Write Correct or rewrite the sentence.

1. She can to drive.

_____

2. Do you can cook pasta?

_____

3. He musts wear a uniform.

_____

4. You do not have to come if you are busy.

_____

5. They might goes to the beach tomorrow.

_____

6. Should I to call the doctor?

_____

7. My sister could read when she was four.

_____

8. We mustn't to be late for the interview.

_____

9. Would you like some water?

_____

10. I am able to finish this today.

_____

5 Everyday situations

Write one complete sentence for each situation. Use the expression in brackets.

1. Your friend has a headache. Give advice. (should)

_____

2. There is a sign in a museum: NO PHOTOS. Explain the rule. (mustn't)

_____

3. You want to ask your teacher for help politely. (could)

_____

4. Your colleague asks about tomorrow's weather. You are not sure. (might)

_____

5. Suggest an activity for this weekend. (shall we)

_____

6. You order a drink in a café. (would like)

_____

6 Writing task

Write 80–100 words. Use at least six expressions from this lesson.

Your English-speaking friend is coming to visit you for three days. Write a message with useful information. Include:

- two things they can do
- advice about one place to visit
- one rule or thing they have to do
- something they do not have to bring
- a possible plan for the weekend
- a polite offer or suggestion

Start like this:

Hi _____,
I'm really happy that you are coming to visit…

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____